OBITUARIES

Clark D. Rother

Clark Daniel Rother of Okarche passed away peacefully on the evening of Dec. 1, 2025, surrounded by family and friends.

Clark was born on Nov. 4, 1963, in Okarche. He was the cherished son of Ed and Carol Rother, growing up on the values of hard work, community and faith that he carried throughout his life.

Clark attended the University of Oklahoma, where he was a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity. He received his bachelor's of business administration in finance in 1986.

He began his career in the oil and gas industry with Scout Energy under the tutelage of Jim Hutchinson.

Clark was a member of Ducks Unlimited, Knights of Columbus, Lions Club and the American Association of Professional Landmen.

He has served as president, vice president, secretary and treasurer of the Oklahoma City Association of Petroleum Landmen.

Clark had a personality that was larger than life. He was deeply loved by so many people.

For many years Clark cared for his uncles. He worked tirelessly to take care of so many things for his family.

He was also deeply involved in the Okarche community, always ready to lend a hand, offer support or simply show up for the people who needed him.

Clark dedicated much of his life to overseeing operations of his family farm and ranching operation, where his work ethic, leadership and commitment shaped his daily life.

Clark raised his son Wyatt Schrader with his former wife Cindy Rother.

Clark was honored to be a father for Wyatt and step-father to Alex and Jake Hall and Abigail Thomas.

Clark faced a courageous battle with metastatic cancer, meeting every stage with resilience, dignity and faith. His strength during this journey was an inspiration to all who walked beside him.

Clark will be remembered for the deep love he held for his family, friends and community and his wry sense of humor that was evident even in his last days.

His absence leaves a quiet but immeasurable void and his memory will continue to live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

Clark is survived by his parents, Ed and Carol Rother; his son, Wyatt Schrader; his sister, Amy Lucas and husband Don; his sister, Cheryl Manley; his brother, Karl Rother and wife Mary; his nieces and nephews Andrew Manley and wife Hailey, Austin, Carter, Mason and Ella Manley, Ryan and Morgan Lucas, Casey Gardner and wife Zoey Gardner; grand-nephew Adler Gardner and grand-niece Brixley Hayes.

Clark was godfather to Austin, Mason and Ella Manley.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, V. F. and Patronella Rother and B.K. and Isabel Rein; his aunt Virginia Simpson; and uncles Gerald, Harold, Vince and Herman Rother.

Services for Clark will be at Holy Trinity Church in Okarche. The wake was 6 p.m. Friday, Dec. 5, and Mass of Christian Burial at 10 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 6, with Reverend Monsignor Donald Wolf, Reverend Zachary Boazman and Deacon Max Schwarz officiating.

Burial was at Holy Trinity Cemetery under the direction of Huber-Benson Funeral Home.

Garrett Josef Wittrock entered this world perfectly on April 26, 2002, and returned to God's loving embrace on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 27, 2025 – his very favorite holiday.

He left behind the love of his life, Dejanna Harjo, and precious daughter, Aurora Layne. He was the treasured son of Sonya and Logan Toepfer of Kingfisher and Jason and Dawn Wittrock of Okarche.

Garrett attended Holy Trinity Catholic School through the sixth grade before moving to Okarche Public Schools.

During his junior year, he decided he wanted to finish his high school career at Kingfisher in order to play football his senior year.

He proudly graduated from Kingfisher High School in May 2020.

Garrett loved nearly every sport and excelled at basketball, soccer and football. He enjoyed lake days, fishing, riding dirt bikes and four-wheelers, bonfires and occasionally hunting.

He loved Thunder basketball, great comedians, gaming, and music – and he had an uncanny gift for finding songs with the most meaningful lyrics.

Sharing those songs with family was one of his favorite things.

Garrett also loved a good challenge, often returning home with scrapes and cuts to prove he had accepted the dare.

Some of his happiest moments were spent with his grandpa and papaw on their farms.

He enjoyed the work, the laughter and the storytelling most of all –always coming home with new tales to share, even if the longhorns were never his favorite cattle to work with.

After graduation, Garrett was thrilled to begin work as an iodine technician, drilling for iodine and suiting up hazmat-style in the lab.

His days resulted in raw, medical-grade iodine – material that would go on to support medical care for countless people.

He took pride in the purpose behind the job.

In May 2020, Garrett met the love of his life, Dejanna Harjo. He was so smitten that he chased her for months until she finally agreed to a date.

After three beautiful years together, they learned in September 2023 that they were expecting a precious gift.

On April 2, 2024, their daughter, Aurora Layne Harjo-Wittrock, was born.

Garrett was endlessly proud of his baby girl. No matter how tired he was after long shifts, he always found the strength to cuddle his little angel – his favorite time of day.

On June 23, 2024, Garrett suffered a life-changing injury, becoming an incomplete quadriplegic after an accident.

He spent four challenging months in rehab and therapy at Craig Hospital in Aurora, Colo.

Even through the difficulty, Garrett kept his smile bright, his humor sharp and his determination unwavering.

He completed the Craig program on Nov. 1, 2024, and made the long-awaited trip home for the first time since June. Adjusting to a drastically changed life brought new challenges, but Garrett faced them with courage.

He deeply cherished those who visited, helped care for him, dropped off meals or called to check in. He never stopped reminding his family how much he appreciated everything they did for him.

His heart was truly grateful.

Garrett was preceded in death by his great-grandparents, Gene and Delores Thompson, Lawrence and Elizabeth Reheman, Joe Long, Lawrence Wittrock, JoAnn Wittrock-Erwin, Gene Erwin, Carla Fairbank and Paul and Dorothy Toepfer.

He is survived by his loving parents, Sonya and Logan Toepfer of Kingfisher, and Jason and Dawn Wittrock of Okarche; his siblings, Macy Kelly and husband Andrew of Kingfisher, Noah Wittrock of Oklahoma City, Brenden Toepfer of Kingfisher, Lilia McAlvain of Yukon, Braxten Toepfer of Kingfisher and Samuel Wittrock of Okarche; his niece, Everleigh Kelly; nephews Emmett and Ellis Kelly; grandparents Fred and Rhonda Reheman of Kingfisher, Joe and Dannette Wittrock of Okarche, David and Cyndi Fairbank of Vail, Ariz., Tim and Tammy Toepfer of Neosho, Mo., and Arlo and Cynthia Bohlman of Kingfisher; great-grandparents Nola Long and Avery and Edna Eeds; and countless aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Donations may be made in Garrett's name to Craig Hospital at 3425 S. Clarkson St., Englewood, CO, 80113.

Please join us for Garrett's Celebration of Life at 2 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 7, at LifeWay Church, 1900 S. 13th St., Kingfisher, OK 73750.

Graveside services will follow at Holy Trinity Cemetery, 900 220th St. NW Okarche, OK 73762.

Arrangements are under the care of Sanders Funeral Service.

concerts.

A benefit dinner will be served in the cafeteria, featuring pulled pork sandwiches smoked by K&L, coleslaw donated by Smokehouse Collective, and beans and mac & cheese prepared by Sunrise Café.

A silent auction and 50/50 raffle will be located in the APB lobby. Everyone is encouraged to stay afterward for band performances by the KUE, junior high, and high school programs in the gym.

Donations may also be made by writing checks to the Kingfisher Action Team and delivering them to Equity Bank. To ensure the funds support Emily, please write “Emily Zingg” in the memo line.
