LETTER TO THE EDITOR

God to the rescue

The Oklahoma Lions State Convention was held on April 24th and 25th in Lawton. Because of the loss of our dear friend and mentor in Lions, John Bode, Mary and I attended his services in Stillwater before heading to Lawton. As we approached our exit in Lawton, our low tire light came on in the car. Not wanting to change a tire in turnpike traffic, I slowed down, took the exit, and found a safe place to pull over and change the tire.

As I was putting the spare donut tire on the car, another car pulled up with a young lady and her father. He immediately took over and finished changing the tire. I guess he saw two older people in distress and wanted to help. We then had to find a tire store because the tire was ruined. The daughter got on her phone, found a tire store, and told us where it was. Since we were not familiar with Lawton, her father said, "Just follow us and we will get you there."

When we arrived at the tire store and arranged for a replacement, we began thanking them for taking the time to go above and beyond to help us. He simply said, "God sent us." What we did not know was that he had already paid for the tire. He would not let us reimburse him, but told us to help someone else when the opportunity comes up.

Keep in mind, we are total strangers from 150 miles apart. It had been a very emotional day, but we were uplifted by the generosity of two total strangers who saw a need.

God does work in mysterious ways.
JD Koch
