OBITUARY

Marilyn Buckner

Our most inspiring, energetic and beloved mother and grandmother, Marilyn Kay Buckner, was born Feb. 5, 1941, to Clyde and Virginia (Nusz) Waters.

She peacefully passed away in her home on May 9, 2026, at the age of 85 with her two children holding each hand.

Marilyn was born in Oklahoma City and, along with her mom, lived at her grandparents' home west of Loyal until her dad returned from World War II. They moved to a home not far from her grandparents where she loved wading in the creek and playing with her animals.

During summers, her whole family traveled to Wyoming, Colorado and other states to custom harvest. Her dad made sure she always had a job at every stop, most often as a café waitress.

Marilyn attended Loyal Public Schools and graduated as salutatorian of her senior class in 1959. English was her favorite subject and she was the pitcher on the 1959 state winning softball team.

She was very proud of secretary in 1974.

Over those 41 years there, she loved being an inspiration, friend, confidante and second mom to thousands of teenagers. She adored the students and missed it so very much after retiring in 2015.

She was inducted into the Hennessey High School Hall of Fame and received the Lifetime Eagle Award.

Always wanting to have fun, Marilyn had some of her best times dancing with Pete, at card parties, at school athletic events and giving her time to the community that she loved so much.

She was a long-term and valued member of Hennessey Child Study Club,

First United Methodist Church and American Legion Auxiliary Girls State.

Marilyn will be lovingly remembered by her son Steve (Diann); daughter Melanie; grandchildren Olivia (Kaden), Brok (Kim), Staci (Dustin), Cody (Chelsea), Colby (Kenna), Ryan, Sailor, Casen and Kross; brother Charlie and sister-in-law Kristy Waters of Loyal; and a host of extended family and friends.

Greeting her in Heaven are her parents, her husband Pete, an unborn child, extended family and many friends who were like family to her.

Memorial services were planned for 10 a.m. Saturday, May 30, at the Hennessey High School Auditorium with Cordry-Gritz Funeral Home handling the cremation arrangements.

The family has chosen to create a scholarship for a Hennessey High School senior who exemplifies "Eagle spirit" in the way she did.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Marilyn Buckner Eagle Spirit Scholarship Fund with the funeral home serving as custodian.

Just part of the Wilson family, honored to be here when you need us.
