It's hard to believe the holiday is only days away. Stores brim with charming decorations and gift displays, and the countdown to finish shopping is quickly slipping away. An essential part of holiday shopping and of our community year-round, is the small businesses that line the main and side streets of Weatherford and beyond. From handmade treasures to one-of-a-kind specialty items, these shops give us the gift of hometown choices. These shops aren't just about gifts – they often carry the everyday essentials we rely on. Shopping small means supporting someone's dream, and benefiting from their thoughtful choices about what to offer their customers. It means skipping the wait for shipping, seeing and touching items before you buy, and strengthening the local economy instead of big corporations. In many ways, it's shopping made personal. Small businesses are woven into the very fabric of our communities, offering far more than just
