motion to accept the Haskell Lemon bid at the meeting when bids were approved, mentioning a concern about dry asphalt in a prior project. Smith said that was not his project.

Haskell Lemon's winning bid totaled $3,781,922.37 for paving in both districts.

Atlas' bid totaled $3,565,530.50.

Seven companies bid on the projects.

Commissioners tabled action on a request from John Gooden of Kingfisher to request a grant from the Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ) which could be used for local law enforcement agencies to start environmental quality crime enforcement in Fiscal Year 2027.

Sparks suggested tabling action to allow additional study on how the program could be applied in the county, noting that trash pickup is an ongoing effort within the nearly 600 miles of District 2.

In other action, commissioners approved minutes of the preceding week's meeting and monthly reimbursement claims for the offices of election board and district attorney.

All commissioners were present, Sparks, Schwarz and District 1 Commissioner Jeff Moss who was unable to attend last week's meeting due to a hospital
