

OBITUARIES

Bobby 'Curly' Corwin

Bobby Vernon "Curly" Corwin, 88, passed away on March 15, 2026, leaving behind a legacy of hard work, music, laughter and deep love for his family.

He was born on April 22, 1937, to Everett Andrew Corwin and Stella Mae Chaney Corwin and graduated from Smith Center High School in Smith Center, Kan., in 1955.

Bobby was preceded in death by his parents; his sisters Fern, VerJean and Carol Rae; and the love of his life, his wife, Carolyn Marie Kersey Corwin.

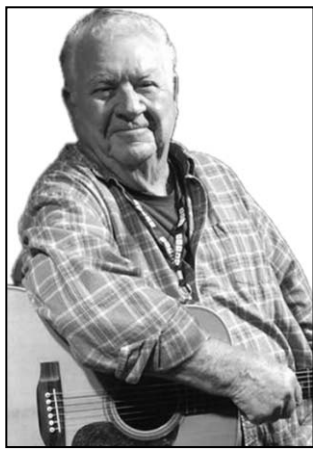

He is survived by his sister Marilyn Bliss; his nephew Kendall Bliss; nieces Janene Bliss, Kimberly Bliss-Hendricks and Anita Mariani; his sons Brad Corwin, Mike Corwin, Dakota Corwin, Marty Johnson; and his otro hijo y amigo Junior Orozco; and his daughters Polly Reed, Shelly Ratcliff and Amy McAnally.

He also leaves behind 16 cherished grandchildren, Lucas, Lynae, Sylvia, Bethany, Christopher, Jordan, Emma, Will, Jackie, Kirstie, Drew, Elliott, Ben, Ali, Reese and Ella; and one great-grandson on the way, a reminder that his legacy will continue.

Known to many simply as "Curly," a nickname earned from his natural curls and carried with pride throughout his life, Bobby was a man of grit, determination and vision.

He began his journey in the oilfield as a young man, working long, demanding days as a roughneck and learning the value of perseverance.

Through hard work and courage, he built and co-founded successful oil and gas ventures, leaving a lasting mark on the industry and the communities he served.

But beyond his professional accomplishments, Bobby was a man of passion and joy.

Music was woven into the fabric of his life. As a boy, he played rhythm guitar alongside his father, who played the fiddle, bringing music to gatherings from living rooms to honky-tonks.

That love of music stayed with him always, leading him to Nashville, where he helped build studios, produce artists and share his talent as a songwriter and performer.

He could pick up nearly any stringed instrument and make it sing and he never missed a chance to entertain those around him with a story, a song or a laugh.

Bobby embraced life fully and fearlessly. He traveled the world, creating unforgettable memories – including hitting a golf ball off a pyramid in Egypt.

He found joy in Puerto Vallarta and adventure in the sky as a helicopter pilot and hot air balloon enthusiast.

Yet, of all the places he went, his heart was most at home at his cabin on the Cimarron River, where he found peace surrounded by nature and the people he loved.

His faith in Jesus Christ was a cornerstone of his life.

Curly knew the grace, mercy and love of his Savior and it was his deepest desire that those he loved would come to experience that same grace, mercy and love for themselves.

That hope and faith gave him strength, shaped his life and now gives comfort to those he leaves behind.

He was a proud founding member of the Grand National Quail Club, a 32nd-degree Mason and a generous supporter of charities including Billy Barty's Little People, Alley's House and Toby Keith's OK Kids Korral.

Above all, Bobby will be remembered for the way he made people feel – welcomed, entertained and valued. He lived boldly, loved deeply and left behind stories that will be told for generations.

His laughter, his music and his spirit will forever echo in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday, March 21, at First Baptist Church, 220 S. Grand, Crescent.

Doris Ann (Biehler) Winter passed away peacefully on March 13, 2026. She was born May 12, 1942, to Bryan and Grace Biehler.

Doris graduated from Omega High School with the Class of 1960.

She spent most of her life in the area where she helped on the family farm while raising her two sons, Doug and Greg. Doris instilled in them the value of hard work, love for family and dedication to the life they built together.

She never missed an opportunity to prepare a meal for her family and took great pride in being a devoted homemaker.

Doris loved the Lord deeply and was a faithful member of Immanuel Baptist Church in Loyal. She cherished serving alongside her church family and treasured the friendships she built there.

She found joy in cooking for the youth and volunteering at the food bank.

Family meant everything to Doris; she especially loved spending time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren and looked forward to every moment she could share with them.

She also enjoyed shopping, keeping up with her hair appointments and you could almost always find her with a Sonic drink in hand.

Doris had a thoughtful heart, loved people dearly and had a special way of making others smile. She never missed the opportunity to send someone a card to let them know she was thinking of them.

She truly lived life to the fullest.

In the last couple of years, Doris made her home at Homestead of Kingfisher, where she continued to make a lasting impact on those around her. She formed many meaningful friendships and cared deeply for the staff and residents there.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Bryan and Grace Biehler; her brothers, John and Tom Biehler; and her sisters, Rose Weinmeister, Berneda Cullum and Gracie Major.

Doris is survived by her loving sons, Doug Winter and wife Kris, and Greg Winter and wife Joanie; her grandchildren, Hillary Hooper and husband Tommy, Taylor Winter and wife Emily and Lane Winter and wife Kennedy; and her great-grandchildren, Amelia Winter, Truett Winter and Chloe Winter; along with many other cherished family members and friends.

A funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. Monday, March 23, at First Baptist Church in Kingfisher, officiated by David Edsall. Burial will follow at Omega Cemetery.

A viewing will be held at Wilson Funeral Home-Kingfisher from 1 to 6 p.m. Sunday, March 22. Family will be present to greet friends from 4 to 6 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to a charity of your choice in Doris' memory.

Mark Smith

Mark David Smith passed away peacefully at home on March 17, 2026, at the age of 65.

He was born Jan. 28, 1961, in Kingfisher to Kenneth and Jo Ann (née Tharp) Smith. A lifelong resident of Kingfisher, Mark joined the National Guard before graduating from Kingfisher High School.

Mark worked as a plumber throughout his life. Early on, he worked alongside his father in the family business, helping build homes across Oklahoma.

In time, he established his own company, Mark's Plumbing.

Mark was known for his kindness and loyalty. He cared deeply about his family and found great joy in time spent together. He made sure his home was always ready when his grandchildren came to visit, preparing the house so it felt welcoming and special.

The Fourth of July meant fireworks. Christmas meant a simple but thoughtful setup. And when the grandchildren arrived, the go-carts were ready. These traditions created lasting memories and reflect the love he showed through quiet actions.

He loved spending time outdoors, especially on any lake he could get to, and he was always ready for a music festival. Whether surrounded by family, friends or good music under an open sky, he was in his element.

He is survived by his mother, Jo Ann Smith, and his wife, Arleene White Smith.

He is also survived by his children, Holly and Chris Yanneta and Amber and Randy Copeland; grandchildren Abigail Yanneta, Logan Yanneta, Lynzee Franklin and Koda Franklin.

He was preceded in death by his father.

He will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered by all who knew him.

Services were held at the Federated Church at 11 a.m. Saturday, March 21.
